

Oana Alexandra GRECU

Front End Developer

A responsible and organized individual with a strong business orientation, I have successfully transitioned from a fulfilling teaching career to front-end web development. With hands-on experience in HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, React, Angular, Bootstrap, JSON, GitHub, and NoSQL, I am eager to leverage my technical skills to contribute to dynamic web development projects. I am driven to continuously expand my expertise, with a goal to transition into Full-stack development.
